not long ago author bill myers had a clear and unmistakable encounter with the lord no audible voice no burning bush just a still small impression that asked if i put you in a coma and you could not tell anyone about me if you could do nothing for me would i be enough bill realized that too many believers himself included have become more focused on serving the lord we love rather than loving the lord we serve through the pages of the jesus experience myers will take you on your own personal journey of rediscovering god s love for you and in turn loving others more deeply matthew mark luke and john give four different views of the story of our lord and savior jesus christ their accounts are compelling but they give a fragmented and scattered view of jesus life in this devotional the author pieces together the life of jesus within these accounts walking readers through his life chronologically in the process he seeks to answer questions such as what would a typical day with jesus have included how did christ interact with scripture especially messianic prophecies when did the plot to kill jesus begin and how extensive was it how many witnesses were there to the resurrection the author also examines how jesus was first recognized as the messiah and declared as the son of god whether any court declared him innocent and what matthew mark luke and john s insights tell us about jesus and his teachings thou art the christ provides a nonbreaking narrative of jesus s life connecting it to old testament prophecies about god s promise to send the messiah for the whole world for any whosoever believing him the publication of these essays in one volume essays published separately and in diverse contexts over a period of thirty years is something of an event professor hooker is one the foremost new testament scholars currently writing and paul is one of her major interests this collection includes some of her best writing on pauline ideas and their contemporary significance the essays focus in particular on paul s understanding of human redemption the author shows that in contrast to adam who was created in the image of god but who lost god s glory christ is the true image of god and the embodiment of his glory christ has achieved what the law could not do rom 8 3 and though the law expressed the purpose of god and reflected his glory its power was incomplete several essays in exploring this relationship between old and new center on the significance for pauline theology of the notion of interchange in christ and professor hooker puts forward the view that paul s idea of participation in christ conveyed in such phrases as in christ and with christ is the key to understanding his christology

Dr. Mwaniki Karura provides fresh insight into the Gospel of Mark, its audience, and its purpose in this in-depth study of the Markan text and its oral context through careful analysis of the rhetorical layers in Mark. Karura establishes the use of Old Testament quotations, miracle stories, and the Passion narratives as tools to galvanize its readers' response to the oral Gospel they had already received. Dr. Karura demonstrates how Mark's Gospel exists as both a challenge and an encouragement, utilizing parables such as the Sower and that of the Wicked Tenants to reflect its readers' own hearts in condemning its audience's lukewarm response to the Gospel they had heard preached. It simultaneously seeks to inspire obedience, faith, and wholehearted passion for that same Gospel. This is an excellent resource for scholars and preachers alike as they seek to further understand the Markan text, its first-century audience, and the context of the early church.

If you allow God into your heart and begin to do His work, what happens there is permanent. We may try to cover it up or rub it out, but His work will always rise to the surface. The Jesus tattoo is a verbal buffet bringing thought, pictures, and an in-your-face realization that most of our life is wasted on what others think about us. Get in the chair and buckle up; you are going to love this ride. The Jesus tattoo will be permanent. Jay Harvey is a gifted speaker, comedian, and author who brings provocative insights to the Christian life. All of Jay's work sets the standard for comprehending the mind of God in a unique way that makes you laugh and examine your sense of purpose. Dr. Benton Ruth, Pastor B.A.M. Div. D. Min., Indianapolis, Indiana. Jay Harvey will make you smile and think about life, about God, and how the two fit together perfectly, integrating thoughtful humor and deep spiritual truth. Jay has the ability to hold the most skeptical audience and place it in the hands of God. Jim Lyon, Senior Pastor, Madison Park Church of God, Anderson, Indiana.
